

WOLGAST BACK IN THE FIGHT

By AD WOLGAST.
I told you I would come back. I am as good as ever now. I handed that Mexican a whaling and would have stopped him in a twenty-round fight. If I can get Ritchie now I'll win back the title he robbed me of.

By JOE RIVERS.
I don't understand how any of the critics could give that fight to Ad. The worst I should have had was a draw. He did not hurt me and the bad nose did not bother me at all. He is about as good as ever, but I can lace him in a longer fight.

Milwaukee, Jan. 23.—Ad Wolgast is the Michigan wildcat of old. The terrible little Dutchman from Cadillac came back with vengeance in the windup at the Hippodrome tonight, outfighting Joe Rivers of California, through ten of the wickedest rounds imaginable. Wolgast seldom if ever displayed more savagery than he did tonight. He fought like a madman all through a desperate half hour, only stopping occasionally for breathing spells. The Mexican met him half way and the result was the best scrap Milwaukee ever saw.

At the conclusion of the combat the former boss of the 133 pounders was unmarked and smiling. Blood

HIS FIRST THOUSAND DOLLARS

Saved from his earnings is the longest stride a young man has to take on the road to success. It is the foundation of his capital resources. The interest on his first thousand dollars will help him accumulate his second thousand. Almost every thirty young man can save a thousand dollars in about five years. Depositing $15.00 per month will more than do it with 4 per cent interest compounded.

was dripping from the Mexican's nose and lips and there was a noticeable swelling under his left eye. He looked as though he had been through the mill all right and no doubt was greatly surprised at the form shown by his old enemy. Brown Joe came east to fight a has-been and he ran into a champion.

Wolgast had a clear shade in four of the rounds. Rivers won the fifth session and the rest were even. That does not give Wolgast a tremendous shade, but it was enough to earn him the popular verdict. Besides, he was the aggressor most of the way.

They went at it hammer and tongs from the opening bell. Ad swung himself off his feet in missing a wild left swing. He repeated this trick in the third session and Rivers wrestled him to the floor in the fifth. It was a rough bout, but neither complained.

Ad started the Mexican's nose bleeding in the second. He put a bump under the eye a few rounds later and puffed up Joe's lips in the last two sessions. Ad was traveling some and he was in there to do all he could to damage his enemy.

Wolgast fought in his usual boring style. When at close quarters he pumped his stout left to the stomach, uppercut with both to the face and swung for the body with every chance.

Often while rushing in he whaled away with a left swing for the body. Whenever it landed it could be heard all over the house. It hurt the Mexican, but he stood up manfully under the whaling.

Rivers was not disgraced at all. He fought a great fight, but was against Wolgast at his best, so he could not win. It is doubtful if any 133 pounder could have taken Ad to a lacing in ten rounds tonight. Rivers showed he was both a boxer and a fighter. He was perfectly willing to go along either way, though Ad was a little too much for him at the close work.

Ad's impenetrable guard bothered Joe, as it does everybody else. The Mexican kept using a left hook for the head trying to get Ad off balance. Joe uncorked a vicious right cross whenever he got an opening and jarred Wolgast with it several times. It was the toughest bout seen here in years and stood the big crowd on its head with delight.

When Wolgast left the ring the 5000 spectators stood up and gave him an ovation. It was a happy moment for Adolph.

Wolgast was in splendid condition. He looked the perfect picture of health, and after watching him fight we believe him when he says that he has finally recovered from that appendicitis operation. If Ritchie would make 133 for him we would like Wolgast's chances very much.

"Peanuts" Schiebel of Rock Island, Ill., out fought Patsy McMahon of Indianapolis in the semi-final. Schiebel floored his opponent in the first round, and after that McMahon was content to let Schiebel do the leading.

Johnny Tillman of Minneapolis and Ben Rowland of Milwaukee boxed a dandy ten-round draw as a preliminary to the big show.

TWO PIONEERS DIE.

Pleasant Grove, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Catherine Iverson and Mrs. Anna Pearce, pioneers of Pleasant Grove, died Wednesday.

Mrs. Iverson's funeral was held in the tabernacle yesterday and was presided over by Bishop S. L. Swenson. The other speakers were J. E. Thomas, Henson Hisset, Alexander Bullock, Bishop Olpin, L. P. Lund and Ezra Walker. Mrs. L. A. Richardson sang a solo.

Mrs. Iverson was born in the province of York, Can., May 14, 1839. She came to Council Bluffs in 1846 and crossed the plains to Utah the same year that the first settlers came, arriving here on September 21, 1847. Her father, Christopher Williams, was the first bishop of the Third ward of Salt Lake City. In 1854 she married Nicholas Iverson and moved to Pleasant Grove, where she had lived ever since. She leaves two children, Nicholas Iverson of Pleasant Grove and Milcent Hoppe of Billings, Mont.

The funeral of Mrs. Pearce was held in the tabernacle today. Bishop Olpin of the First ward presided. The other speakers were John W. Gardner, Mark Bezzant, C. B. Harpner, W. H. Armistead, James O. Bullock and Ray West. Mrs. Stella Sundberg rendered a solo.

Mrs. Pearce was 78 years of age and had made her home in Pleasant Grove. She leaves a family of three boys and two girls, all of whom are married and most of them live here.

PROHIBITION IN THE MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

Logan, Jan. 23.—The State Municipal League of Utah opened its annual convention here today and signified that event by unanimously adopting a motion expressing the sentiment of the convention as being in favor of state-wide prohibition. This action was taken at the afternoon session after T. H. Burton of Nephi had submitted a lengthy report of the work of the legislative committee appointed at the last meeting of the convention.

City Attorney Law of Logan, in a forcible speech, told of the difficulties of enforcing the present law against the liquor traffic. He said that he was emphatically in favor of state-wide prohibition if we are to have prohibition of any sort. He urged that the railway companies be compelled to keep their records of liquor shipments open for public inspection. He demanded that prohibitionists be fair and that technicalities be not taken advantage of by them to prevent elections being called when the requisite number of voters has signed them.

AMERICAN FORK FIVE BEATS LEHI HOOPERS

American Fork, Jan. 23.—The local high school basketball team tonight won from the Lehi high school quintette here in the high school for the second time this season. The final score was 37 to 21. The game was one of the best ever witnessed on a local floor.

"Happy" Holmstead's American Fork team took the lead from the start. At the end of the first half the score was 20 to 8 in favor of the locals. Al Gunn and "Beef" Hammond, of the Y. M. C. A. team of Salt Lake officiated in tonight's game.

The lineup:

Vant	Ashton
Greene	Wanless
Lindsey	Gray
Clark	Dorson
Barratt	Jones

Field baskets—Vant 4, Lindsey 3, Barratt 7, Ashton 3, Wanless 2, Gray 1, Dorson 1, Jones 1.

Free throws—Barratt 9 out of 19, Dorson 5 out of 21.

SALT LAKE HIGH WINS IN WELLSVILLE GAME

Wellsville, Jan. 23.—The Salt Lake high school basketball team defeated the local high school five here tonight in the high school gymnasium by the score of 24 to 18. The game was one of the best seen here this year.

During the first half Coach Richardson of Salt Lake was referee. He called many fouls on the Wellsville boys and but few on his own team. The local men objected to this and in the second half a local man relieved Richardson. The Salt Lake boys played a clean and hard game during the last half. The first half ended with the score 12 to 5 in favor of Salt Lake.

The Wellsville high school students gave a dance in honor of the visitors tonight. The Salt Lake team will leave for Logan tomorrow morning, where they will meet the Agricultural college team in the evening.

The lineup:

Wellsville	Salt Lake
Bond	Sidway
Allen	Spencer
Williams	Rawlings
Kerr	Johnson
Glenn	Romney

MINERS' BODIES CANNOT BE FOUND

Bingham, Utah, Jan. 24.—Search in the Boston Consolidated mine for the two missing miners, believed to have perished within the smoke and gas-filled workings, was continued yesterday with less difficulty, but no better success.

The fire had burned low before 8 o'clock tonight and the gas and smoke had cleared out sufficiently so that twenty-three men went in 3000 feet without helmets before experiencing difficulty. Wearing oxygen helmets, three men went in 1200 feet further, but found nothing of the lost miners. The helmet worn by John Caulfield, foreman of the mine, failed to work properly after the men had been in for a short time and he was brought out of the mine hurriedly by his comrades. The search was given up at 10:30 o'clock tonight. It is believed that the fire in the shaft will have died down within the next twenty-four hours sufficiently to allow complete exploration of the smoked part of the workings without the use of helmets.

Funeral services for Mike Osich and Joseph Stenich, two of the three men who gave up their lives last Wednesday in a futile effort to rescue their imprisoned comrades, will be held this morning, beginning at 7:15 o'clock, when the funeral cortege will leave O'Donnell & Co.'s undertaking parlors. Services will be held in the Holy Rosary church at 7:30 o'clock after which the bodies will be taken to Salt Lake on the Denver & Rio Grande train and interment will be in Calvary cemetery. Services for Robert Dulch, the third man, will be held at the Holy Rosary church at 12 o'clock. Interment will be in the City cemetery. Two Servian societies will participate in the services for all three men.

JOHN W. COONS, PIONEER.

Richfield, Jan. 23.—John W. Coons of this place died this morning at 1 o'clock. He was born in Bethlehem, Iowa, December 7, 1853, and came to Utah with his parents in 1865 and settled in Provo valley, then came to Sevier county in 1872, where he has since resided.

Mr. Coons was married to Eliza Ann Ogilvie January 25, 1875. He was a member of the Mormon church and an ardent worker, especially enjoying Sunday school work. He filled a mission in the northern states for two years. He was deputy sheriff for six years and was elected sheriff seven times, serving fourteen years for Sevier county. He is survived by his wife and five sons and three daughters. They are Mr. G. W. Coons, Mrs. Ardene Ence, Mrs. W. Lawson, Mrs. C. Ogden, Charles Coons, Jay Coons, Edmund Coons and Brozell Coons. All were at the bedside when their father passed away.

At Annabell's this morning at 6 o'clock Mrs. Estella Huntsman Spafford, wife of W. N. Spafford, passed away. Mrs. Spafford was born in Fillmore January 24, 1863. She leaves the husband and four children, Mrs. Claud Sampson, Mrs. H. Knight, Carl G. Spafford and Miss Rena Spafford.

EXPENSE BILLS SMALL.

Provo, Jan. 23.—Being elected to office in Provo is not an expensive proceeding judging from the campaign expense statements filed by Mayor C. F. Decker and Miss Alice Brown, city auditor, elected last November. Their campaign expenses are reported at $8 each, and the amounts were contributed by the candidates, personally. The expenses of Commissioner LeRoy Dixon, elected at the same time, were even less.

PLAYERS FOR LEAGUE TEAMS

Salt Lake, Jan. 24.—If the weather man is good to us, Salt Lake will have the very large pleasure of seeing a genuine baseball game on the first day of April, for on that day the Chicago White Sox are to play the Murray team of the Union association.

Dr. C. P. Harville, Murray manager, yesterday received the following telegram from Cliff Blankenship, Murray's manager, who is in California finding ball players for his team:

"If you can secure grounds, White Sox will play Murray at Salt Lake April 1."

Dr. Harville immediately set about getting the grounds and last evening he wired Blankenship that the show lot would be ready for the White Sox on April 1.

The Chicago Americans are training at Paso del Robles Springs, in California—that is, the White Sox who are not on the world tour. The tourists will go to California in March. They intend to head eastward from California about March 25, and will play games en route. The first exhibition will be at Sacramento.

The situation in regard to the Boise club is not yet definitely settled. It is probable that Maury B. Evans of this city, who has first call on the Boise franchise by virtue of his action on behalf of Boise at the Boise league meeting, will make a trip to Boise within a day or two.

A letter or two from the Idaho capital indicates that the folks there are almost ready to do something.

Meanwhile the Boise matter is no clearer in Boise than it is in Salt Lake, in testimony whereof the following from the Boise Capital News is printed:

"Directors of the Boise Baseball association and a few fans, including several business men, are said to have held a meeting at the local Commercial club rooms early this week, at which they decided to put through a plan to raise $4000 and form a stock company to take over and handle the Boise franchise and future baseball in this city. Of this amount $1000 is said to have been subscribed and an effort is being made to secure the balance. Fans as a whole are as yet unfamiliar with the actual financial status of the local club and although an effort has been made to ascertain this it has proven unsuccessful. In view of the fact there are some hundreds if not thousands of fans who are interested in Boise's future, baseball and might be only too willing to lend a helping hand, it is believed that some light should be thrown on the subject."

Crittenden Signs.

Helena has already begun the construction of its team. Dick Crittenden is the first to sign a Vigilants contract. The Independent says:

"Dick Crittenden, Helena's reliable backstop, yesterday added his signature to a contract to catch for the club at the coming season in the Union association. He is the first of the men to sign up for the season."

"Dick was in demand. While the fate of Helena, with reference to the league, was in the balance, Dick went to Spokane to visit and while there he was offered by Manager Bob Brown of the Vancouver club of the Northwestern league. Brown made the offer, basing it on the belief that Helena was out of the league. Dick, as soon as he heard of the result of the meeting at Butte, returned here to sign up or get his release. He signed."

MAY ATTEMPT TO EXTRADITE CLARK

Salt Lake, Jan. 24.—Following a conference with N. G. Morgan, who returned from Sacramento yesterday morning, I. E. Willey, county attorney, said that steps probably would be taken by his office to extradite J. S. Clark, one of the promoters alleged to have been involved in the bank draft affair for which the county sought to extradite C. W. French.

"Mr. Clark was very active in the defense of French at the hearing before the California governor," said the county attorney, "and he probably will be given a chance to defend himself before the same tribunal."

Clark is alleged to have been responsible for a certain $1400 draft cashed here at the time of the conference of the supporters of the promoters, which later was repudiated.

The county attorney made a statement yesterday to the effect that his office would not take part in any attempt to settle the French affair out of the courts.

"We have done our best to extradite French," he said.

"We want him, and we believe we will get him yet."

Mr. Morgan, assistant county attorney, reported to his chief that the extradition of French would not be acted upon by the governor of California until next week. In the meantime French is out under $10,000 bond.

FOUNDLING ADOPTED

SELLS MINING CLAIMS.

Provo, Jan. 23.—A mining deed from Gus Doetsch to the Tintic Zinc company conveying North Tintic mining claims has been filed with the county recorder. The claims are: The Columbia and Columbia Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, and Red King Nos. 1, 2 and 3. The consideration named is $5000.

ANTI-TIPPING LAW FOR CANAL ZONE

It is entitled an order "to prevent the corrupt influencing of agents or servants," and provides a year's imprisonment and fines ranging from $10 to $100 for violations.

The order attracted much attention in view of the fact that Colonel Goetz now is investigating charges that John Burke, commissary agent of the Panama railroad, received rebates on contracts.

PLANS FOR NEW DAILY.

Provo, Utah, Jan. 23.—E. Ross Parker, a Seattle attorney and newspaper man, is contemplating coming to Provo for the purpose of publishing a daily paper. If he decides to undertake the enterprise the paper will probably be known in politics.

RAIN KILLS SQUIRRELS.

Stockton, Cal., Jan. 23.—Rain and high water it was estimated here today, has resulted in the death of 10,000 ground squirrels in the vicinity of Avena. Farmers, who regard squirrels as crop pests, as well as conveyors of bubonic plague germs, turned out with clubs and as the rodents caught in the flood, swam ashore they were slaughtered by thousands. At one ranch employees say they killed more than 5000. Thousands of squirrels were drowned in their holes.

WAINO KETONEN THROWS CHESTER

Pocatello, Ida., Jan. 23.—The wrestling match at Eagles' hall last night between Waino Ketonen, Finnish champion, and Arthur Chester of Pocatello was won by Ketonen. The first fall was obtained with a leg and neck lock hold in forty minutes and thirty-seven seconds; the second with a full nelson, in fifteen minutes. Chester made a good showing and a large crowd saw the bout.

FARM DEMONSTRATOR IS WELL RECEIVED

Dr. R. J. Evans, state leader in farm and home demonstration work, has just returned to Logan from a three weeks' trip through Carbon, Emery, Sanpete and Sevier counties.

The week ending January 10 was spent with R. H. Stewart, farm demonstrator in Carbon and Emery counties, where meetings were held with the farmers at Orangeville, Castle Dale, Huntington and Wellington. The purpose of these meetings was to assist Mr. Stewart in getting the farmers organized to more efficiently handle the larger community problems in agriculture, and to facilitate the work of the county agricultural agents.

Organizations have been formed in each of these towns and will be formed in every village in the two counties. There will then be formed a central organization to act as a sort of clearing house for the local associations.

The primary work of these associations will be to develop a permanent system of crop and animal production and to standardize these products and get them, in first class condition, in the hands of the consumer.

The work of the farm demonstrator is making a strong, steady growth. The farmers everywhere appreciate this service and are making the best of it.

Dr. Evans spent two days with Miss Lyman in her home demonstration work in Sanpete county. Miss Lyman was accompanied right into the homes of the people, where home problems were studied and discussed in confidence with the farmers' wives. These good women are growing to appreciate this work fully and to love and respect Miss Lyman as one of the most helpful of friends. Mr. Evans is greatly pleased with the work Miss Lyman is doing, as well as with that of Mr. Merrill and Mr. Stewart.

The following letter will illustrate the spirit in which this work is being received by the farmers in all districts now under the influence of the demonstrator:

Wellington, Utah, Jan. 10, 1914.

"Robert J. Evans: Dear Sir—About November 10 last Robert H. Stewart and farm demonstrator for Carbon and Emery counties, was making some demonstrations on one of the very oldest farms in this district, and when he suggested to me that there was a great supply of alfalfa stored near the surface of an alfalfa field that I knew had been in hay and alfalfa seed for at least twenty-eight years, it was to me clear beyond belief, and I told him so, with the result that he made a demonstration and showed that at about 18 inches there was damp soil and that it became almost mud in about eight feet.

"I was not satisfied until we had made a test as far from any canal or lateral as I could pick out. Our tests have opened up a new field of thought to me, and I see clearly that by a mere intelligent usage of water, and water systems that we have considered insufficient in the past.

"In the past I have been very indifferent to what has been said by lecturers in our community, but when the field man gets down to mother earth and shows me things as so, then I am with you. Send us all the lectures and literature that you have;

we appreciate them. ut to my mind the farm demonstrator is the real power in the community.

"I trust that something will come up that will convert and make every farmer of the state a firm believer and active member in farm organization. Yours truly,
